IMO, you get none of that with Singh's Angels' Blood. In Singh's Guild Hunter series, the entire world's population is not only aware of angels, they are also ruled by them. Angels are Top Dog. All government officials - be they mayors or presidents, ambassadors or prime ministers - are just for show, apparantly.

Angels' Blood (Guild Hunter Series #1) by Nalini Singh ...

Angels' Blood reads like a cross between a paranormal romance and urban fantasy. There's an interesting mix of other-worldly characters, the fairly gory pursuit of a crazy Archangel turned bloodborn serial killer and the kiss me/kill me tension filled romance between the Archangel Raphael and Elena Deveraux- the hunter born vampire tracker he presses into his employ against her will and better judgement.
